Fill in the gaps

I was in the winter of my life- and the men I met along the road were my only summer.
At night I (1) sleep with vision of myself dancing and laughing and crying with them.
Three year down the line of being on an endless world tour and my memories of them were the only things (2) sustained me, and my only real happy times. I was a singer, not very popular one, who once has dreams of becoming a beautiful poet-but upon an unfortunate series of events saw those dreams dashed and divided like million stars in the (3) sky that I wished on over and over again-sparkling and broken.
But I really didn't mind because I knew that it takes getting everything you ever (4) and then losing it to know what true freedom is.
When the people I used to know found out what I had been doing, how I had been living- they asked me why.
But (5) no use in talking to people who have a home, they have no idea what its like to seek safety in other people, for home to be wherever you lied you head. I was always an unusual girl, my mother told me that I had a chameleon soul.
No moral compass pointing me due north, no fixed personality. Just an inner indecisiveness that was as wide as wavering as the ocean.
And if I said that I did't plan for it to turn out this way I'd be lying- because I was born to be the other woman.
I belonged to no one- who belonged to everyone, who had nothing-who wanted everything with a fire for every experience and an

Been tryin' hard not to get into trouble, but I I've got a war in my mind
So, I just ride
Just ride, I just ride, I just ride Dying young and playing hard

That's the way my father made his life an art

That's the way the road doves do it, ride 'til it's dark Don't leave me now
Don't say good bye
Don't turn around
Leave me high and dry
I hear the birds on the summer breeze,
I drive fast
I am alone in the night
Been tryin' hard not to get in trouble, but I
