The awakening by James Morrison

Was too busy drying my tears Is right here with you next to me To feel the sun was shining on my skin And I have been waiting for this (8)	I haven't felt this awake in years	The only place I want to be
Locked up in my own cage for so long, so long Filled up with a bitter rage I gotta get a little light inside I couldn't see the prison I was in And I'm here holding out for just one thing I (1) across the line alone And it's your love, your love To find a truth I'd never ever known Makes everything feel alright The truth was there all this time I was slowly slowly dying, slowly dying The only one who couldn't see was me It's like the first day I'm alive And I have been waiting for this awakening (9)	Was too busy drying my tears	Is right here with you next to me
