The Kids Aren't Alright by The Offspring

| When we (1) (2) our                                 | He (15) (16) guitar a             | nd |
|---|-----------------------------------|----|
| (3) was so (4) (whoa, oh!)                          | (17) a lot of pot                 |    |
| The old neighborhood was so alive (whoa, oh!)       | Jay (18) suicide (whoa, oh!)      |    |
| And every kid on the whole (5) (6)                  | Brandon OD'd and (19) (whoa, oh!) |    |
| (whoa, oh!)   | What the hell is going on         |    |
| Was gonna make it big and not be beat               | The cruelest dream, reality       |    |
| Now the neighborhood's cracked and torn (whoa, oh!) | Chances thrown                    |    |
| The (7) are grown up but their lives are            | Nothing's free                    |    |
| (8) (whoa, oh!)                                     | Longing for, used to be           |    |
| How can one (9) street                              | Still it's hard                   |    |
| Swallow so many lives                               | Hard to see                       |    |
| Chances thrown                                      | Fragile lives, (20) dreams        |    |
| Nothing's free                                      | Chances thrown                    |    |
| Longing for, (10) to be                             | Nothing's free                    |    |
| Still it's hard                                     | Longing for, (21) to be           |    |
| Hard to see   | Still it's hard                   |    |
| Fragile lives, shattered dreams                     | Hard to see                       |    |
| (Whoa!)   | Fragile lives, (22) dreams        |    |
| Jamie had a chance, well she (11) did (whoa,        |                                   |    |
| oh!)  |                                   |    |
| Instead she (12) out and had a couple of            |                                   |    |
| kids (whoa, oh!)                                    |                                   |    |
| Mark still (13) at home (14) he's                   |                                   |    |
| got no job (whoa, oh!)                              |                                   |    |
