

Fill in the gaps

In Penny Lane (1) is a (2)	Behind the shelter in the middle of a roundabout showing photographs	The pretty nurse is selling poppies from a tray
Of every head he's had the pleasure to know	And though she feels as if she's in a play
And all the (3) that come and go	She is anyway.
Stop and say hello.	In Penny (9) the barber shaves another customer
On the corner is a banker with a motorcar	We see the banker sitting (10) for a trim
The little children laugh at him behind his back	And then the fireman rushes in
And the banker never wears a mack	From the pouring rain, very strange
In the pouring rain, very strange	Penny lane is in my ears and in my eyes
Penny Lane is in my ears and in my eyes	There beneath the blue suburban skies
There (4) the blue suburban skies	I sit, and meanwhile back
I sit, and meanwhile back	Penny lane is in my ears and in my eyes
In penny Lane there is a fireman with an hourglass	There beneath the blue suburban skies
And in his pocket is a portrait of the Queen	Penny Lane
He likes to keep his fire engine clean
It's a (5) machine
Penny (6) is in my ears and in my eyes
Full of (7) and finger pies
In summer, (8) back
