Just Another Birthday by Casting Crowns

Sixteen (1) me	But it's just another birthday
Blowing out candles and making wishes	And I'm not fine
And all around me	I'm not fine
Is everyone but the one I'm (2) for	In the company of strangers
And he (3) me flowers	In a (14) and sterile room
And gift-wrapped excuses	All alone (15) a (16) inside me
From a daddy whose daughter	And I don't (17) what to do
Wants to see him again	Jesus, can You (18) me
And I know, I know	Come and heal my brokennes
It's (4) (5) birthday	Put the pieces (19) together
But I (6) I thought	And be a Father to the fatherless
This (7) be the one	A Father to the fatherless
When he (8) me, see me	Twenty-one finds me
Hold me and free me	Blowing out (20) and making wishes
But it's (10) another birthday	And all around me
And I'll be fine	My barefoot (21)(22)
I'll be fine	and sings
Nineteen finds me	It's so amazing
And I'm wild-eyed and wide open	Looking (23) at all God's (24) us
I gave myself away to love	through
But backseat (11) fade like a mist	You are my happy birthday
I'm screaming at the midnight air	And you (25) born to break the chains
Everyone hears me but I don't care	Now I know, I know
My heart's clenched just like a fist	It's not (26) (27) birthday
'Cause, people, I didn't ask for any of this	'Cause I'm here, she's here
And I know, I know	And look how far we've come
It's just (12) birthday	Since you've called me, saw me
But I guess I thought	Held me and freed me
This would be the one	Thank you (28) for another birthday
When he would (13) me, see me	And we'll be fine
Hold me and free me	We'll be fine
