She waits at the disco for her song to end

Oklahoma by The Answering Machine

| Oklahoma, she won't be your friend        | Oklahoma, she likes to reflect        |
|-------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| She waits at the disco for her (1) to end | Ignores you at parties                |
| Oklahoma, she must know my name           | What did you expect?                  |
| It's been six months now                  | And I keep on trying not to go harder |
| I'm tired of (2) game                     | Trying not to be smarter              |
| And I keep on trying not to go harder     | Trying not to notice you              |
| Trying not to be smarter                  | And I keep on trying not to go harder |
| Trying not to notice you                  | Trying not to be smarter              |
| And I keep on trying not to go harder     | But I can't go on                     |
| Trying not to be smarter                  | I miss my friends but I (5) her tone  |
| But I (3) go on                           | Her eyes are (6) like telephones      |
| I miss my (4) but I like her tone         | And I try, and I try, and I try       |
| Her eyes are black like telephones        | I miss my friends but I (7) her tone  |
| And I try, and I try, and I try           | Her (8) are black like telephones     |
| I miss my friends but I like her tone     | And I try, and I try, and I try       |
| Her eyes are black like telephones        | But I, I can't remember               |
| And I try, and I try, and I try           | (Oh no)                               |
| I wanna do                                |                                       |
| Oklahoma, she won't be your friend        |                                       |
