My Guardian Angel by Place Vendome

I've got the strange feeling		Could everything be a dream?
That I am never really alone		Guarding my heart, protecting my soul
I can (1) her eyes follow me		There is a guardian angel here
Wherever I go, she will always know		She is watching (6) me	me
Suddenly I'm awake		Healing my wound, guiding me home
There is no one here all is (2) here		There is a guardian angel here
Maybe it's a mistake		She is keeping me alive
Could everything be a dream?		My guardian angel
Guarding my heart, protecting my soul		Suddenly I'm awake	nly I'm awake
There is a (3)	_ angel here	There is no one here all is (7)	here
She is watching over me		Maybe it's a mistake
Healing my wound, guiding me home		Could everything be a dream?
There is a guardian angel here		Guarding my heart, (8)	ing my heart, (8) my soul
She is keeping me alive		There is a guardian angel here
My (4) angel		She is watching over me
I'm looking in the mirror		Healing my wound, guiding me home
I can only see a stranger's face		There is a (9)	angel here
