

Maybe it's a mistake

Fill in the gaps

My Guardian Angel by Place Vendome

ive got the strange reeling	Could everything be a dream?
That I am never really alone	Guarding my heart, protecting my soul
I can (1) her (2) follow me	There is a guardian (11) here
Wherever I go, she (3) always know	She is (12) me
Suddenly I'm awake	Healing my wound, (14) me home
There is no one (4) all is (5) here	There is a guardian (15) here
Maybe it's a mistake	She is keeping me alive
Could everything be a dream?	My guardian angel
Guarding my heart, protecting my soul	Suddenly I'm awake
There is a guardian angel here	There is no one here all is empty here
She is (6) me	Maybe it's a mistake
Healing my wound, guiding me home	Could everything be a dream?
There is a (8) (9) here	Guarding my heart, (16) my soul
She is keeping me alive	There is a guardian (17) here
My guardian angel	She is watching over me
I'm looking in the mirror	Healing my wound, guiding me home
I can (10) see a stranger's face	There is a guardian (18) here
Who am I turning into?	She is keeping me alive
Save me now, before it is too late	My (19) angel
Suddenly I'm awake
There is no one here all is empty here
