|--|--|
| You can hear the boats go by | And you (13) to travel with him |
| You can spend the night beside her | You want to travel blind |
| And you know, she's half crazy | And you know he (14) find you |
| It's why you (1) to be there | For he's touched your perfect body with his mind |
| She feeds you tea and oranges | Suzanne takes your hand now |
| That (2) all the way from China | And she leads you to the river |
| And (3) when you (4) to tell her | She is wearing rags and feathers |
| You have no love to give her | From Salvation Army counters |
| She gets you on her wavelength | And the sun (15) down like honey |
| And she lets the river answer | On our, our (16) of the harbor |
| You've always been her lover | She (17) you (18) to look |
| And you want to travel (5) her | Among the garbage and the flowers |
| And you want to travel blind | There are heroes in the seaweed |
| And (6) she (7) (8) you | There are children in the morning |
| For you've touched her perfect (9) with your mind | They are (19) out for love |
| Jesus was a sailor | And they will lean that way forever |
| When He walked upon the water | While (20) holds the mirror |
| And He spent a long time watching | And you (21) to travel (22) her |
| From His lonely wooden tower | You want to travel blind |
| And when He knew for certain | And you know she'll find you |
| Only (10) men could see Him | For she's touched your perfect (23) (24) |
| He said,"All men will be (11) | her mind |
| then | |
| Until the sea shall free them" | |
| But He, Himself was broken | |
| Long (12) the sky would open | |
| Forsaken, almost human | |
