

You say why

Fill in the gaps

Miracle of miracles	You say why
Look what the night dragged in	Don't ask me why
It's a pocket full of misery	I don't (7) you anymore
And trouble on the wind	I don't think I ever did
You spoiled the best (1) of your life	And if you (8) had any kind of love for me
You took them all in vain	You kept it all so well hid
Now you think that you're forgiven	You spoiled the best years of your life
But you can't be (2) again	You (9) them all in vain
You say why	Now you think that you're forgiven
You say why	But you can't be born again
You say why	You say
Don't ask me why	(Why, why, why, why, why, why, why, why)
I don't (3) you anymore	You say
I don't think I ever did	(Why, why, why, why, why, why, why, why)
And if you ever had any kind of love for me	I don't love you anymore
You kept it all so (4) hid	I don't love you anymore
Promises sweet	I don't love you anymore
Promises	I don't love you anymore
You kept them from (5) mind	You say why (I don't love you anymore)
Like all the lost forgotten things	You say why (I don't love you anymore)
You never seemed to find	You say why (I don't love you anymore)
Like all the disappointments	Don't ask me why (I don't (10) you anymore)
You displayed upon (6) shelf	You say why (I don't love you anymore)
Now you've got no one to turn to	You say why (I don't love you anymore)
You've got	You say why (I don't love you anymore)
No one but yourself	(Don't ask me why)
And you say why
