

Tonight, I need your sweet caress

Fill in the gaps

As I (1) you move	Hold me in the darkness
Across the moonlit room	Tonight, you calm my restlessness
There's so much (2) in your loving	You (7) my sadness
Tomorrow I must leave	Tonight, I need your (8) caress
The dawn knows no reprieve	Hold me in the darkness
God (3) me strength when I am leaving	Tonight, you calm my restlessness
So raise your hands to heaven and pray	You relieve my sadness
That we'll be back together someday	Morning has come, another day
Tonight, I need your (4) caress	I must pack my bags and say goodbye
Hold me in the darkness	Goodbye
Tonight, you calm my restlessness	Tonight, I need your sweet caress
You relieve my sadness	Hold me in the darkness
As we move to embrace	Tonight, you (9) my restlessness
Tears run down your face	You (10) my sadness
I whisper words of love, so softly	Tonight, I need your sweet caress
I can't believe this pain	Hold me in the darkness
It's driving me insane	Tonight, you calm my restlessness
Without your touch, life (5) be lonely	You relieve my sadness
So (6) your hands to heaven and pray
That we'll be back together someday
