City On The Hill by Casting Crowns

Fill in the gaps

Did you hear of the city on a hill?	It was the (17) of the old
Said one old man to the other	It was the story of the poor man
It (1) shined bright and it would be shining still	That needed be told
But they all (2) turning on each other	It is the rhythm of the dancers
You see the poets thought the dancers were shallow	That (18) the poets life
And the soldiers thought the (3) were weak	It is the spirit of the poets
And the (4) saw the young (5) as	That gives the (19) strength to fight foolish	It is the (20) of the young ones
And the (6) man never (7) the poor	It is the wisdom of the old man speak	It is the story of the (21) man
And one by one they ran away	That's needing to be told
With their made up minds to leave it all behind	One by one, will we run away?
And the light began to fade	With our made up minds to (22) it all behind
In the city on a hill	As the light begins to fade
The city on a hill	In the city on a hill?
Each one (8) that they (9) better	One by one, (23) we run away?
But (10) (11) different by design	With our (24) up (25) to leave it a
Instead of standing strong together	behind
They let their (12) divide	As the (26) begins to fade
And one by one they ran away	In the city on a hill?
With their made up minds to leave it all behind	The city on a hill
And the light (13) to fade	Come home
In the city on a hill	And the Father's calling still
The city on a hill	Come home
And the (14) is searchin' still	To the city on the hill
But it was the rhythm of the dancers	Come home
That gave the poets life
It was the (15) of the poets
That (16) the soldiers strength to fight
It was the fire of the young ones
