Fill in the gaps

One Year Ago (Live) by Lene Marlin

She's walking there alone	Was one (12) ago
No one by her side	When you cared so much for her
She (1) to fight the tears, but	And (13) her so
The pain inside	Not a doubt in her mind
She can't hide	That it would still be you
And all the (2) she's cried	'Cause the (14) that you shared
The moment she closes her eyes, she starts	It was true
Thinking of you	She's walking there alone
The dreams that she had one time	No one by her side
Have gone away	She managed to fight the (15) but
Will they ever come true?	The pain inside
All she needs is	She can't hide
All she (3) is you	And she (16) today
All she needs is you	Was one (17) ago
And she (4) today	When you cared so much for her
Was one year ago	And (18) her so
When you cared so much for her	Not a doubt in her mind
And loved her so	That it (19) still be you
Not a doubt in her mind	'Cause the love that you shared
That it (5) be you	It was true
'Cause the (7) that you shared	And she (20) today
It was true	Was one (21) ago
You (8) it	When you cared so (22) for her
What you made her feel	And loved her so
You (10) you'd stay together	Not a (23) in her mind
But the hope she once had	That it (24) (25) be you
So unreal	'Cause the love that you shared
All she needs is	It was true
All she needs is you
All she needs is you
And she (11) today
