Tangled Up In Blue (Live) by Bob Dylan

early one morning, the sun was shinin	She was working in a topless place
She was layin' in bed	And I (3) in for a beer
Nondering if she'd changed it all	I just (4) looking at the sight of her face
f her hair was still red	In the spotlight so clear
Her folks they said their lives together	And later on when the (5) thinned out
Sure was gonna be rough	I was just about to do the same
They never did like mama's homemade dress	She was standing (6) right beside my chair
Papa's bankbook wasn't big enough	Said, "Don't tell me, let me (7) your name?"
And he was standing on the side of the road	I muttered something underneath my breath
Rain (1) on my shoes	She studied the lines on my face
Heading out for the east coast	I must admit I felt a little uneasy ord knows he's paid some dues	When she bent down to tie the (8) of my shoe
Getting through	Tangled up in blue
Tangled up in blue	I lived with them on Montague Street
She was married when they first met	In a basement down the stairs
Soon to be divorced	There was music in the cafes at night
He helped her out of a jam, I guess	And revolution in the air
But he used a little too much force	Then he started into dealing (9) slaves
And they drove that car as far as (2) could	And something inside of him died
Abandoned it out west	She had to sell everything she owned
Split up on a dark, sad night	And froze up inside
Both agreeing it was best	And when it all came (10) down
And she turned around to look at him	I became withdrawn
As he was walking away	The only thing I knew how to do
Saying over his shoulder	Was to keep on keeping on like a bird that flew
"We'll meet again someday on the avenue"	Tangled up in blue
Tangled up in blue	So now I'm going back again
He had a job in Santa Fe	I got to get her somehow
Working in an old hotel	All the faces we used to know
But he never did like it all that much	They're an illusion to me now
And one day it just went to hell	Some are mathematicians
So he drifted down to New Orleans	Some are carpenter's wives
Lucky not to be destroyed	Don't know how it all got started
Well he got him a job on a fishing boat	I don't what they do with their lives
Right outside of Delacroix	But me, I'm still on the road
But all the while he was alone	Heading for another joint
The past was close behind	We always did feel the same
He seen a lot of women	We just saw it from a different point of view
But she never escaped his mind	Tangled up in blue
