And we can learn to love again

Fill in the gaps

Just Give Me A Reason by P!nk & Nate Ruess (Fun)

| Right (1) the start                                     | I never stopped                                   |
|---|---|
| You (2) a thief, you (3) my heart                       | You're (13) written in the scars, on my heart     |
| And I, your (4) victim                                  | You're not broken, just bent                      |
| I let you see the parts                                 | And we can learn to love again                    |
| Of me that weren't all that pretty                      | Our tear (14) and rust                            |
| And with every touch you fixed them                     | I'll fix it for us                                |
| Now you've been talking in (5) sleep                    | We're collecting dust but our love's enough       |
| Things you never say to me                              | You're (15) it in                                 |
| Tell me that you've had enough                          | You're pouring a drink                            |
| Of our love, our love                                   | No, nothing is as bad as it seems                 |
| Just give me a reason, just a little bit's enough       | We'll come clean                                  |
| Just a second, we're not broken, just bent              | Just give me a reason, (16) a little bit's enough |
| And we can learn to love again                          | Just a second, we're not broken, (17) bent        |
| It's in the stars                                       | And we can learn to love again                    |
| It's (6) written in the scars, on our hearts            | It's in the stars                                 |
| We're not broken, (7) bent                              | It's been written in the scars, on our hearts     |
| And we can learn to love again                          | That we're not broken, just bent                  |
| I'm sorry I don't understand                            | And we can learn to love again                    |
| Where all of this is coming from                        | Just give me a reason, just a little bit's enough |
| I (8) that we were fine (we had everything)             | Just a second, we're not broken, (18) bent        |
| Your head is running wild again                         | And we can learn to love again                    |
| My dear, we still have everything                       | It's in the stars                                 |
| And it's all in your mind (yeah, but this is happening) | It's been written in the scars, on our hearts     |
| You've (9) (10) real bad dreams                         | That we're not broken, just bent                  |
| You used to lie so close to me                          | And we can learn to love again                    |
| There's nothing more than empty sheets                  | We can (19) to love again                         |
| Between our love, our love                              | We can learn to love again                        |
| Our love, our love                                      | That we're not broken, just bent                  |
| Just (11) me a reason, just a little bit's enough       | And we can learn to love again                    |
| Just a second, we're not broken, (12) bent              |   |
