Candle In The Wind '97 by Elton John Goodbye England's rose

Goodbye England's rose	You lived your life like a candle in the wind
May you ever grow in our hearts	Never (7) with the sunset
You (1) the grace that placed itself	When the rain set in
Where lives were torn apart	And your footsteps will always fall here
You called out to our country	Along England's (8) hills
And you whispered to (2) in pain	Your candle's burned out long before
Now you belong to Heaven	Your legend ever will
And the stars spell out your name	Goodbye England's rose
And it (3) to me	May you ever grow in our hearts
You lived your life like a (4) in the wind	You were the grace that placed itself
Never fading with the sunset	Where lives were torn apart
When the rain set in	Goodbye England's rose
And your footsteps will always fall here	From a (9) lost without your soul
Along England's greenest hills	Who'll miss the wings of your compassion
Your candle's (5) out long before	More than you'll ever know
Your legend ever will	And it seems to me
Loveliness we've lost	You lived your life like a candle in the wind
Those empty days without your smile	Never fading with the sunset
This torch we'll always carry	When the rain set in
For our nation's golden child	And your footsteps will always (10) here
Even though we try	Along England's greenest hills
The truth brings us to tears	Your candle's burned out long before
All our words (6) express	Your legend ever will
The joy you brought us through the years
