21st Century Breakdown by Green Day

| Born into nixon I was raised in hell        | A worker of pride              |
|---|--------------------------------|
| A welfare (1) (2) the teamsters             | My debt to the status quo      |
| dwelled                                     | The scars on my hands          |
| The last one born, and the first one to run | And the (16) to an end         |
| My town was blind from refinery sun         | Is all (17) I have to show     |
| My generation is zero                       |                                |
| I never (3) it as a (4)                     | I swalloed my pride            |
| (5) hero                                    | And I (18) on my faith         |
| 21st century breakdown                      | I've given my (19) and my soul |
| I (6) was lost but never was found          | I've broken my fingers         |
| I think I am losing what's (7) of my mind   | And lied (20) my teeth         |
| To the (8) century deadline                 | The (21) of damage control     |
| I was made of poison and blood              | I've been to the edge          |
| Condemnation is what I understood           | And I've thrown the bouquet    |
| Videogames to the tower's fall              | Of flowers (22) over the grave |
| Homeland security could kill us all         | I sat in the waiting room      |
| My (9) is zero                              | Wasting my time                |
| I never made it as a working class hero     | And (23) for Judgement Day     |
| 21st century breakdown                      | I (24) liberty                 |
| I once was (10) but never was found         | The "Freedom to Obey"          |
| I think I am (11) what's left of my mind    | Is the song that (25) me       |
| To the 20th century deadline                | Well, don't cross the line     |
| We are the (12) of, the (13) of 13          | (Oh) dream, America dream      |
| Born in the era of humility                 | I can't even sleep             |
| We are the desperate in the decline         | From the light's early dawn    |
| Raised by the (14) of 1969                  | (Oh) scream, America scream    |
| My name is no one                           | Believe what you see           |
| The long (15) son                           | From heroes and cons           |
| Born on the 4th of July                     |                                |
| Raised in an era of heroes and cons         |                                |
| That left me for dead or alive              |                                |
