A Holly Jolly Christmas by Lady Antebellum

| Have a holly jolly Christma    | as        |           |            |                 |
|--------------------------------|-----------|-----------|------------|-----------------|
| It's the best time of the year |           |           |            |                 |
| Now I don't know if there'll   | l be snow |           |            |                 |
| But have a cup of cheer        |           |           |            |                 |
| Have a holly jolly Christma    | as        |           |            |                 |
| And (1) you (2                 | 2)        | down      | the street |                 |
| Say hello to friends you kr    | now       |           |            |                 |
| And everyone you meet          |           |           |            |                 |
| Ho, ho, the mistletoe          |           |           |            |                 |
| Hung where you can see         |           |           |            |                 |
| Somebody waits for you         |           |           |            |                 |
| Kiss him once for me           |           |           |            |                 |
| Have a (3)                     | (4)       | Cł        | nristmas   |                 |
| And in case you didn't hea     | ar        |           |            |                 |
| Oh, bygolly have a (5)         |           | jolly Chi | ristmas    |                 |
