There was a man back in ninety five	When you get right down to the Whose heart ran out of summers but (1) he	Reason for the world who am I died	There are secrets that we
I asked him, wait, what's the sense in life	Still have left to find
Come over me, come over me	There have been mysteries
He said, son why you got to sing that tune	From the (6) of time
Catch a Dylan song or some eclipse of the moon	There are answers
Let an angel swing and make you swoon	We're not wise enough to see
Then you will see, you (2) see	He said, you looking for a clue
Then he said, here's a riddle for you	I love you free
Find the answer	The batter swings and the summer flies
There's a reason for the world	As I look into my angel's eyes
You and I	A song plays on while the moon is hiding
Picked up my kid from school today	Over me, (7) comes over me
Did you (3) anything 'cause in the world today	I guess we're big and I (8) we're small
You can't live in a castle far away	If you think (9) it, man you know we got it all
Now talk to me, (4) talk to me	'Cause we're all we got on (10) bouncing ball
He said, dad I'm big, but we're smaller than small	And I love you free, I love you freely
In the scheme of things, well we're nothing at all	Here's a riddle for you
Still every mother's child sings a lonely song	Find the answer
So play (5) me, come play with me	There's a reason for the world
And hey dad, here's a riddle for you	You and I
Find the answer
There's a reason for the world
You and I
I said, son for all I've told you
