The Howling by Within Temptation

We've been seeing what you wanted	They're coming (3) the hills (4) behind
Got us cornered right now	When we start killing
Fallen asleep from our vanity	It's all coming (5) right now
Might cost us our lives	From the (6) we've created
I hear they're getting closer	I want to be awakened somehow
Their howls are sending chills down my spine	(I want to be (7) right now)
And time is running out now	When we start killing
They're coming down the (1) from behind	It all (8) be (9) down
When we start killing	From the hell that we're in
It's all coming down right now	All we are is fading away
From the nightmare we've created	When we start killing
I want to be awakened somehow	When we start killing
(I want to be awakened right now)	I feel they're getting closer
When we start killing	Their howls are sending chills down my spine
It all will be falling down	And time is running out now
From the hell, that we're in	They're coming down the hills from behind
All we are is (2) away	When we start killing
When we start killing	It all will be falling down
We've been searching all night long	From the hell that we're in
But there's no trace to be found	All we are is fading away
It's like they all have just vanished	When we start killing
But I know they're around	When we start killing
I feel they're getting closer	When we start killing
Their howls are sending chills down my spine
