You Never Can Tell by Chuck Berry

| It was a (1) wedding | The (15) tempo of the music fell |
|---|---------------------------------------|
| And the old (2) wished `em well | "C'est la vie" say the old folks |
| You could see (3) Pierre | It (16) to (17) you never can tell |
| Did (4) love the mademoiselle | They bought a souped-up jitney |
| And now the (5) monsieur and madam | Was a cherry red `53 |
| Have rung the chapel bell | And drove it down New Orleans |
| "C'est la vie" say the old folks | To celebrate (18) anniversary |
| It goes to show you (6) can tell | It was there where Pierre |
| They (7) off an apartment | Was wedded to the lovely mademoiselle |
| With a two-room Roebuck sale | "C'est la vie" say the old folks |
| The coolerator was crammed | It goes to (19) you (20) can tell |
| With TV (8) and (9) ale | They had a (21) wedding |
| But (10) Pierre (11) work | And the old (22) wished `em well |
| The little money comin' worked out well | You could see that Pierre |
| "C'est la vie" say the old folks | Did truly (23) the mademoiselle |
| It goes to show you never can tell | And now the young monsieur and madam |
| They had a hi-fi phono | Have (24) the (25) bell |
| Boy did (12) let it blast | "C'est la vie" say the old folks |
| Seven (13) (14) records | It goes to show you (26) can tell |
| All rock, rhythm, and jazz | |
| But when the sun went down | |
