| Jnder it's spell                         | The (4) hand (5) (6)            |
| close my eyes                            | me                              |
| And live to tell                         | Held too tight                  |
| The hands we're (1) will never disappear | His darkness (7) on me at night |
| Death she grows near                     | People change                   |
| People change                            | And instantly                   |
| And instantly                            | I'm not the same girl           |
| 'm not the same girl                     | I used to be                    |
| used to be                               | I can't (8) all the memories    |
| can't erase all the memories             | But I can explain               |
| But I can explain                        | If you're listening             |
| f you're listening                       | People change                   |
| People change                            | Not (9) me                      |
| Not (2) me                               | I never asked or wanted to      |
| ocked up in silence                      | You stepped across my threshold |
| A living hell                            | How could you?                  |
|  |                                 |
