The Dark Of The Matinée by Franz Ferdinand

Take your white finger		Find me in the matinee
Slide the nail under		The (11) of the matinee
The top and bottom buttons of		Is (12) in the matinee
My blazer		The dark of the (13) is mine
Relax the fraying wool		Yes it's mine
Slacken (1) and I'm		So I'm on BBC2 now
Not to look at you in the shoe		Telling (14) Wogan how
But the eyes find the eyes		I made it and
Find me and (2) me		What I (15) is unclear
Through corridors, refectories		But his deference is
And files you must follow, leave		And his laughter is
This academic factory		My words and (16) are so easy no	ОW
Find me in the matinee		Yes, It's easy now
The dark of the matinee		Yes, It's (17) now
Is better in the matinee		Find me and follow me
The dark of the (3) is mine		Through corridors, refectories
Yes it's mine		And files you must follow, leave
I (4) journey		This academic factory
To bump into you		Find me in the matinee
Accidentally I		The dark of the matinee
Charm you and (6) you		Is (18) in the matinee
Of the boys I hate		The dark of matinee
All the girls I hate		Find me and (19) me
All the words I hate		Through corridors, refectories
All clothes I hate		And files you must follow, leave
How I'll never be		This (20) factory
Anything I hate		Find me in the matinee
You smile, mention (7)	(8)	The dark of the matinee
you like		Is better in the matinee
How you'd have a happy life		The dark of the (21) is mine
If you did the (9) you like		Yes it's mine
Find me and (10) me
Through corridors, refectories
And files you must follow, leave
