

Fill in the gaps

| All these kind of places                           | And I sit and pray  |
|--|---------------------|
| Make it seems like it's (1) ages                   | They never feel m   |
| And tomorrow sun with buildings scrape the sky     | But then my partn   |
| I love this country dearly                         | The pension funds   |
| I can feel the latter clearly                      | He made some ba     |
| But never thought I'd be alone to try              | Now the counts are  |
| Once I was outside Penn station                    | I took a walk       |
| Selling red and white carnations                   | Take a walk, take   |
| We were still alone, my wife and I                 | (bis)               |
| Before we married, saved my money                  | Honey, it's your so |
| Brought my dear wife over                          | I think I borrowed  |
| Now I work to bring my (2) stateside               | We have taxes, w    |
| Got off the boat, they stayed a while              | We have a lifestyle |
| (3) scattered across the coast                     | And (6)             |
| Once a year I'll see them for a week or so at most | And we'll make lov  |
| I took a walk                                      | And (7)             |
| Take a walk, take a walk                           | For the neighbors   |
| (bis)  | We can rip apart t  |
| Practice isn't perfect but the market cuts a loss  | And all their (9)_  |
| I remind myself that times could be (4) worse      | You'll see I am no  |
| My wife won't ask me questions                     | I'm down on both    |
| There's not so much to ask                         | I'm just too much   |
| And she'll never flaunt around an empty purse      | To admit when I'm   |
| Watch my mother lacking                            | I took a walk       |
| Just to stay a couple nights                       | Take a walk, (10)   |
| And decided she would stay the (5) of her life     | (bis)               |
| I watch my little children                         |                     |
| Play some boardgame in the kitchen                 |                     |

| They never feel my strife  |  |
|--|--|
| But then my partner called to say  |  |
| The pension funds were gone  |  |
| He made some bad investments   |  |
| Now the counts are overdrawn   |  |
| I took a walk  |  |
| Take a walk, take a walk take a walk   |  |
| (bis)  |  |
| Honey, it's your son   |  |
| I think I borrowed just too much   |  |
| We have taxes, we have bill  |  |
| We have a lifestyle to front   |  |
| And (6) I swear I'll come home   |  |
| And we'll make love like we're young   |  |
|  |  |
| And (7) you'll (8) dinner  |  |
| And (7) you'll (8) dinner For the neighbors and their kids   |  |
| For the neighbors and their kids We can rip apart the socialists   |  |
| For the neighbors and their kids   |  |
| For the neighbors and their kids We can rip apart the socialists   |  |
| For the neighbors and their kids  We can rip apart the socialists  And all their (9) taxes   |  |
| For the neighbors and their kids We can rip apart the socialists And all their (9) taxes You'll see I am no criminal   |  |
| For the neighbors and their kids We can rip apart the socialists And all their (9) taxes You'll see I am no criminal I'm down on both bad knees  |  |
| For the neighbors and their kids We can rip apart the socialists And all their (9) taxes You'll see I am no criminal I'm down on both bad knees I'm just too much a coward To admit when I'm in need I took a walk |  |
| For the neighbors and their kids We can rip apart the socialists And all their (9) taxes You'll see I am no criminal I'm down on both bad knees I'm just too much a coward To admit when I'm in need               |  |
