

Fill in the gaps

| There's a place where everyone can be happy | Even though you remain determined to be opposed |
|---|---|
| It's the most beautiful (1) in the whole    | fucng Admittance requires no qualifications   |
| world                                       | It's where (8) has been                         |
| It's made of candy canes and planes         | and where everybody goes                        |
| And (2) red (choo-choo) trains              | So (9) try not to be impatient                  |
| And the meanest (3) boys                    | For we all hate standing in line                |
| And the most innocent little girls          | And when the farm is good and bought            |
| And you know I wish (4) I could got there   | You'll be there without a thought               |
| It's a road that I have not found           | And eternity, my friend, is a long fuing time |
| And I (5) you the best of luck, dear        | Because there's no time for fussing             |
| Drop a card or letter to my side of town    | And fighting my friend                          |
| Because there's no time for (6)             | But baby I'm amazed at the hate                 |
| And fighting my friend                      | That you can send and                           |
| But baby I'm amazed at the hate             | You, painted my entire world                    |
| That you can send and                       | But I, don't have the (10)                      |
| You, (7) my entire world                    | To clean what you have soiled                   |
| But I, don't have the turpentine            | And I won't forget it                           |
| To clean what you have soiled               |   |
| And I won't forget it                       |   |
| There's a place where everyone can be right |   |
