Fill in the gaps

The way I tend to be by Frank Turner

Some mornings I pray for evening	You could save me from the way I tend to be
For the day to be done	Because I've said I love you so many times
Some summer days I hide away	(7) the words kind of die in my mouth
And wait for rain to come	And I meant it each time
Because it turns out (1) will not be found	With each beautiful woman
Within the fires below	But somehow it never works out
But in making do and muddling through	But you stood apart in my calloused heart
When you've nowhere (2) to go	And you taught me and here's what I learned
But then I remember you	That love is (8) of the changes you make
And the way you shine like (3) in all you do	And not (9) (10) small words
And if you remembered me	And then I catch myself
You could save me from the way I tend to be	Catching your scent on someone else
The way I tend to be	In a crowded space
(4) days I wake up dazed, my dear	And it takes me somewhere
And I don't know where I am	I cannot quite place
I've been running now so long I'm scared	And then I remember you
I've forgotten how to stand	And the way you shine like truth in all you do
I stand alone in airport bars	And if you remembered me
And gather (5) to think	You could save me from the way I tend to be
That if all I had was one long road	The way I tend to be
It could drive a man to drink	The way I tend to be
But then I remember you
And the way you shine (6) truth in all you do
And if you remembered me
