For once there is nothing up my sleeve	I know we got caught up slipping
Just some scars from a life	Through a crowd of (13) and losers
(1) used to trouble me	But you must not let them take you
I used to run at first sight of the sun	They (14) know you like I do
Now I lay here waiting for you to wake up	For once there is nothing up my (15)
The city (2) (3) sounds like	Just some scars from a life that (16) to trouble me
t's on fire	I used to run at first (17) of the sun
You put on new sheets	Now I lay here waiting for you to wake up
The (4) flag of a Saturday (5)	I lay here waiting for you to wake up
I know we stayed up talking in circles	Do you remember when we stayed up
But I like to think the symmetry	Till the sun strikes (18) the room?
Will keep me closer to you	I (19) to blame it
For everyone, (6) out to prove wrong	On the Queens walking down 7th avenue
You keep the light on	(20) (21) years now since we
The only one, you know me better than the truth	moved
So, (7) what I've done	I've gotten through with an excuse
I pray to God that we can move on	You know I try not to speak superlatives
Because thus far you are the best thing	But it's impossible to you
That this (8) has yet to lose	The city (22) is nothing but a
And, for once there is nothing up my sleeve	(23) now
Just some scars (9) a life that used to	You see your (24) at bed, you turn out the

I (11) to run at first sight of the sun	I start to think (25) (26) a
Now I lay here (12) for you to wake up	beautiful mother
I lay here waiting for you to wake up	I, I like to (27)
So if you gonna leave, if you gonna go	I've everything I want from this life
I can't barely sleep without you in my arms
