(1) are children standing here,	And I see no bravery,
Arms outstretched into the sky,	No (7) in your eyes anymore.
Tears (2) on their face.	Only sadness.
He has been here.	And I see no bravery,

And I see no bravery,	Wives and daughters cut and raped.
No bravery in your eyes anymore.	A generation drenched in hate.
Only sadness, only sadness.	Yes, he has been here.
Houses burnt beyond repair.	And I see no bravery,
The smell of death is in the air.	No bravery in your eyes anymore.
A woman weeping in despair says,	Only sadness.
He has been here.	And I see no bravery,

It's another families' turn to die.	Only sadness.
