Chelsea Hotel No 2 by Lana del Rey

I remember you (1) in the Chelsea Hotel	But for me you would (7) an exception
You were talking so (2) and so sweet	And clenching your fist for the ones like us
(3) me head on the unmade bed	Who are oppressed by the figures of beauty
While the limousines wait in the street	You fixed yourself, you said
Those were the reasons and that was New York	"Well never mind, we are ugly but we have the music"
We were running for the money and the flesh	And you got away, didn't you baby?
And (4) was called love	You just turned your back on the crowd
For the workers in song	And you got away, I never once (8) you say
Probably still is for those of them left	I need you, I don't need you
Ah, but you got away, didn't you baby?	I need you, I don't need you
You just turned your back on the crowd	And all of that jiving around
You got away, I never (5) heard you say	I don't mean to suggest that I loved you the best
I need you, I don't need you	I can't keep track of each fallen robin
I need you, I don't need you	I remember you well in the Chelsea Hotel
And all of that jiving around	That's all, I don't even (9) of you that often
I remember you well in the Chelsea Hotel
You (6) famous, your heart was a legend
You told me again you preferred handsome men
