Fill in the gaps

Shame by Robbie Williams & Gary Barlow

Well there's three versions of this story	(3) a shame we never listened
Mine and yours and then the truth	I told you through the television
And we can put it down to circumstance	And all that (4) away was the (5) we
Our childhood then our youth	paid
Out of some sentimental gain	People spend a lifetime this way
I wanted you to feel my pain	And that's how (6) stay
But it came back return to sender	Oh, what a shame
I read your mind and tried to call	Words come easy, when they're true
My tears could fill the Albert Hall	Words come easy, when they're true
Is this the (1) of sweet surrender?	So I got busy throwing everybody underneath the bus
What a shame we never listened	And with your (7) 30 foot high at the back of
I told you through the television	Toys-R-Us
And all that went away was the price we paid	Now we can put it down to circumstance
People spend a lifetime this way	Our childhood then our youth.
Oh, what a shame	What a shame we never listened
So I got busy throwing everybody underneath the bus	I told you through the television
And with your poster 30 foot high at the back of Toys-R-Us	And all (8) went away was the price we paid
I (2) a letter in my mind	People spend a lifetime this way
But the words were so unkind	And that's how they stay
About a man I can't remember	People spend a lifetime this way
I don't recall the reasons why	Oh, what a shame
I must have meant them at the time	What a shame
Is this the sound of sweet surrender?	(9) a shame, what a shame
