Fill in the gaps

Shame by Robbie Williams & Gary Barlow

Well there's three versions of this story	What a shame we never listened
Mine and yours and then the truth	I told you through the television
And we can put it down to circumstance	And all that went away was the price we paid
Our childhood then our youth	People spend a lifetime this way
Out of some sentimental gain	And that's how they stay
I wanted you to feel my pain	Oh, what a shame
But it came back return to sender	Words come easy, (5) they're true
I read your mind and tried to call	Words come easy, when they're true
My tears could fill the Albert Hall	So I got busy (6) everybody
Is this the sound of sweet surrender?	(7) the bus
What a shame we never listened	And with your poster 30 foot high at the back of Toys-R-Us
I told you through the television	Now we can put it down to circumstance
And all that went (1) was the price we paid	Our childhood then our youth.
People spend a (2) this way	What a shame we never listened
Oh, what a shame	I told you through the television
So I got busy throwing everybody underneath the bus	And all (8) went away was the price we paid
And with your poster 30 foot high at the back of Toys-R-Us	People (9) a lifetime this way
I wrote a letter in my mind	And that's how they stay
But the words were so unkind	People spend a lifetime this way
About a man I can't remember	Oh, what a shame
I don't recall the reasons why	What a shame
I must have (3) them at the time	Such a shame, what a shame
Is this the sound of (4) surrender?
