| The kick in our ass says it's time to close               | And the band was on (6) our song                          |
|---|---|
| We're leaning on each other                               | We messed up the lyrics as we sang along                  |
| Trying to beat the cold                                   | But we didn't care  |
| Carry your shoes and I give you my coat                   | Because it felt like we were the only ones there          |
| Walking these streets                                     | Our feet were sure  |
| Like they (1) paved gold                                  | Our thoughts were raw                                     |
| There ain't anymore excuses not to go                     | They're turning on the lights, but we're shouting more    |
| Neither one of us want to take (2) taxi home              | We're shouting more                                       |
| Singing our hearts out, standing on chairs                | Singing our hearts out, standing on chairs                |
| Spending our time, like we were millionaires              | Spending our time like we were millionaires               |
| Laughing our heads off, the two of us there               | Laughing our heads off, the two of us there               |
| Spending our time like we were millionaires, millionaires | Spending our time like we were millionaires, millionaires |
| Lost my heart and I hoped to die                          | Check out us since six in the morning                     |
| Seeing (3) sunlight hit your eyes                         | If time was money, yeah we'd be worth a fortune           |
| Been up all night   | I swear, you may (7) you're rich                          |
| But you still look amazing to me                          | You could have a million euro                             |
| Half the time of the night you only dream about           | But you can't buy this                                    |
| If God came down could take me now                        | Look at us since six in the morning                       |
| Because in my mind, we will always be                     | If time was money, yeah we'd be (8) a fortune             |
| Singing our hearts out, standing on chairs                | I swear, you may think you're rich                        |
| Spending our time like we were millionaires               | You could have a million euro                             |
| Laughing our heads off, the two of us there               | But you can't buy this                                    |
| Spending our time (4) we were millionaires,               | Walking these (9)   |
| millionaires  | Like they're paved gold                                   |
| Check out us since six in the morning                     | There ain't anymore excuses not to go                     |
