| castle,  | No. When I see stars, (16) I see stars, that's all                |
| Some nights, I wish they'd just fall off.                  | they are,   |
| But I still wake up, I still see your ghost,               | When I hear songs, they sound like a swan, so (17)                |
| Oh Lord, I'm still not sure what I (2) for oh,             | on,   |

| Why don't we break the rules already?                      | anybody understands,  |
| was (6) one to (7) the hype,                               | This is not one for the folks at home; I'm sorry to leave, mom, I |
| save that for the black and white,                         | had to go,  |

| (9) come (10) to jack my style.                            | (23) up in the desert sun?.                                       |
| And that's alright; I found a (11) in my bed               | My heart is breaking for my sister and the con that she called    |

| Some nights, I (13) win, I always win.                     | The other night, you wouldn't believe the dream I just had        |
| But I still wake up, I still see your ghost,               | about you and me,   |
| Oh Lord, I'm still not sure what I stand for, oh,          | I (25) you up, but we'd both agree,                               |
| What do I (14) for? What do I stand for?                   | It's for the best you didn't listen,                              |
| Most nights, I don't know (come on)                        | It's for the best we get our distance,                            |
|  | It's for the best you didn't listen,                              |
|  | It's for the best we get our distance.                            |
