In Penny (1) there is a barber showing	Bening the (8) in the middle of a photographs	roundabout
Of every head he's had the pleasure to know	The pretty nurse is selling poppies from a tray
And all the (2) that come and go	And though she feels as if she's in a play
Stop and say hello.	She is anyway.
On the corner is a banker (3) a motorcar	In Penny Lane the barber shaves another customer
The little children laugh at him behind his back	We see the (9) (10) waiting
And the banker never wears a mack	for a trim
In the pouring rain, (4) strange	And then the fireman rushes in
Penny Lane is in my ears and in my eyes	From the pouring rain, very strange
There beneath the (5) suburban skies	Penny lane is in my ears and in my eyes
I sit, and meanwhile back	There beneath the blue suburban skies
In penny Lane there is a fireman with an hourglass	I sit, and meanwhile back
And in his pocket is a portrait of the Queen	Penny lane is in my ears and in my eyes
He likes to keep his fire engine clean	There beneath the blue suburban skies
It's a clean machine	Penny Lane
Penny Lane is in my ears and in my eyes
Full of (6) and (7) pies
In summer, meanwhile back
