Fill in the gaps

| I was in the winter of my life- and the men I met along the road   |
|--|
| were my only summer.   |
| At night I fell sleep with vision of myself (1)  |
| and laughing and crying with them.   |
| Three year down the line of being on an endless  |
| (2) tour and my memories of them were the only   |
| things that sustained me,  |
| and my only real happy times. I was a singer, not very popular   |
| one, who once has dreams of becoming a beautiful poet-   |
| but upon an unfortunate (3) of events saw  |
|  |
| those dreams (4) and divided like million stars  |
| in the night sky that I wished on (5) and over   |
| again-   |
| sparkling and broken.  |
| But I (6) didn't (7) because I knew  |
| that it takes getting everything you ever wanted and then  |
| losing it to know what true freedom is.  |
| When the people I used to know found out what I had been   |
| doing, how I had been living- they asked me why.   |
| But there's no use in talking to people who have a home, they  |
| have no (8) what its like to seek safety in  |
| (9) people,  |
| for home to be wherever you lied you head. I was always an   |
| unusual girl, my mother told me that I had a   |

I hear the birds on the summer breeze,

I drive fast

I am alone in the night

Been tryin' hard not to get into trouble, but I

I've got a war in my mind

So, I just ride

Just ride, I just ride, I just ride

Dying young and playing hard

That's the way my father made his life an art
