Just Another Birthday by Casting Crowns

Sixteen finds me	But it's (14) another birthday
Blowing out (1) and making wishes	And I'm not fine
And all around me	I'm not fine s everyone but the one I'm wishing for	In the (15) of strangers
And he sent me flowers	In a cold and sterile room
And gift-wrapped excuses	All alone (16) a (17) inside me
From a (2) whose daughter	And I don't (18) what to do
Wants to see him again	Jesus, can You (19) me
And I know, I know	Come and heal my brokennes t's just another birthday	Put the pieces back together
But I guess I thought	And be a Father to the fatherless
This (3) be the one	A Father to the fatherless
When he (4) call me, see me	Twenty-one finds me
Hold me and free me	Blowing out candles and making wishes
But it's just another birthday	And all around me
And I'll be fine	My barefoot princess twirls and sings
'Il be fine	It's so amazing
Nineteen (5) me	Looking (20) at all God's brought us through
And I'm wild-eyed and (6) open	You are my (21) birthday gave myself away to love	And you were (22) to (23) the chains
But (7) promises fade like a mist	Now I know, I know
'm (8) at the (9)	_ It's not just another birthday air	'Cause I'm here, she's here
Everyone hears me but I don't care	And (24) how far we've come
My heart's clenched just (10) a fist	Since you've (25) me, saw me
Cause, people, I didn't ask for any of this	Held me and freed me
And I know, I know	Thank you Lord for another birthday
t's just (11) birthday	And we'll be fine
But I guess I thought	We'll be fine
This (12) be the one
When he would (13) me, see me
