Crying Lightning by Arctic Monkeys

Outside the (1) by the cracker factory	Like you'd never (13) a war
You were practicing a magic trick	Although I tried so not to suffer
And my (2) got rude	The indignity of a reaction
As you talked and chewed	There was no cracks to (14) or gaps to claw
On the (3) of (4) (5) and mix	And your pastimes consisted of the strange
So, you're mistaken if you're thinking	And twisted and deranged
That I haven't been called cold before	And I hate that little game
As you bit into your strawberry lace	You had called "Crying lightning"
And (6) offered me your attention	And how you liked to aggravate
In the form of a gobstopper	The (15) man on rainy afternoons
It's all you had left and it was going to waste	Uninviting
Your pastimes consisted of the strange	But not half as impossible
And twisted and deranged	As (16) assumes you are
And I love that little game	"Crying lightning"
You had called "Crying lightning"	Your pastimes consisted of the strange
And how you liked to aggravate	Twisted and deranged
The ice-cream man on rainy afternoons	And I (17) that (18) (19)
The next time that I (7) my own reflection	you had called
It was on its way to (8) you	Crying lightning
Thinking of excuses to postpone	Crying lightning
You (9) looked like yourself	Crying lightning
From the side but your profile	Crying lightning
Could not hide the fact	Your pastimes, consisted of the strange
You knew I was approaching your throne	And twisted and deranged
With folded arms you occupied	And I hate (20) (21) game
The bench (10) a toothache	You had called "Crying"
Stood and (11) (12) short out
