

Fill in the gaps

| Fight the fight alone                     |            | On broken (6)                  | I'm falling |
|---|------------|--------------------------------|-------------|
| When the world is full of victims         |            | And it won't be long           |             |
| Dims a fading light in our souls          |            | The skin on me is burning      |             |
| Leave the peace alone                     |            | By the fires of the sun        |             |
| How we all are slowly changing            |            | On skinned knees I'm bleeding  |             |
| Dims a fading light in our souls          |            | And it won't be long           |             |
| In my opinion seeing is to know           |            | I've got to find that meaning  |             |
| The things we hold are always first to go |            | And I'll search for so long    |             |
| And who's to say we won't end up alone    |            | Set a-free all                 |             |
| On broken wings I'm falling               |            | Relying on their will          |             |
| And it won't be long                      |            | To (7) me all that I am        |             |
| The skin on me is burning                 |            | And all (8) I'll be            |             |
| By the fires of the sun                   |            | Set a-free all                 |             |
| On skinned (1) I'm bleeding               |            | Will fall between the cracks   |             |
| And it won't be long                      |            | With memories of all that I am |             |
| I've got to find that meaning             |            | And all that I'll be           |             |
| And I'll search for so long               |            | On broken (9)                  | I'm falling |
| Cry (2) to sleep                          |            | And it won't be long           |             |
| We will sleep alone forever               |            | The skin on me is burning      |             |
| Will you lay me down                      |            | By the fires of the sun        |             |
| In the (3) place with all I love          |            | On skinned knees I'm bleeding  |             |
| Mend the broken homes                     |            | And it won't be long           |             |
| Care for them they are our brothers       |            | I've got to find that meaning  |             |
| Save the fading light in our souls        |            | And I'll search for so long    |             |
| In my (4)(5)                              | is to know |                                |             |
| What you give will always carry you       |            |                                |             |
| Who's to say we won't survive it too      |            |                                |             |
