You Are More by Tenth Avenue North

There's a girl in the corner	You've been remade
With tear stains on her eyes	You are more than the choices that you've made
From the places she's wandered	You are more than the sum of your past mistakes
And the shame she can't hide	You are (4) than the (5) you
She says, "How did I get here?	create
I'm not who I once was	You've been remade
And I'm (1) by the fear	'Cause this is not about what you've done
That I've fallen too far to love"	But what's been done for you
But don't you know who you are	This is not about where you've been
What's been done for you?	But where your (6) brings you to
Yeah, don't you know who you are?	This is not about what you feel
You are more than the choices that you've made	But what he felt to forgive you
You are more than the sum of your past mistakes	And what he (7) to make you loved
You are (2) than the problems you create	You are more than the choices that you've made
You've been remade	You are more than the sum of your past mistakes
Well she tries to believe it	You are more than the problems you create
That she's been (3) new life	You've been remade
But she can't shake the feeling	You are more than the choices that you've made
That it's not true tonight	You are more (8) the sum of (9) past
She knows all the answers	mistakes
And she's rehearsed all the lines	You are more than the problems you create
And so she'll try to do better	You've been remade
But then she's too weak to try	You've been remade
But don't you know who you are?	You've been remade
You are more than the choices that you've made	You've been remade
You are more than the sum of your past mistakes	You've been remade
