You Are More by Tenth Avenue North

There's a girl in the corner	You've been remade
With (1) stains on her eyes	You are more than the choices that you've made
From the places she's wandered	You are more than the sum of your (3) mistakes
And the shame she can't hide	You are more than the problems you create
She says, "How did I get here?	You've been remade
I'm not who I once was	'Cause this is not about what you've done
And I'm crippled by the fear	But what's (4) done for you
That I've fallen too far to love"	This is not (5) where you've been
But don't you know who you are	But where your brokenness brings you to
What's been done for you?	This is not (6) what you feel
Yeah, don't you know who you are?	But what he felt to forgive you
You are more than the choices that you've made	And (7) he felt to (8) you loved
You are more than the sum of your past mistakes	You are more than the choices that you've made
You are (2) than the problems you create	You are more than the sum of your past mistakes
You've been remade	You are more than the (9) you create
Well she tries to believe it	You've been remade
That she's been given new life	You are more than the choices that you've made
But she can't shake the feeling	You are more than the sum of your past mistakes
That it's not true tonight	You are more than the problems you create
She knows all the answers	You've been remade
And she's rehearsed all the lines	You've been remade
And so she'll try to do better	You've (10) remade
But then she's too weak to try	You've been remade
But don't you know who you are?	You've been remade
You are more than the choices that you've made
You are more than the sum of your past mistakes
