I remember black skies			So give me reason
The (1)	all around me		To (12) me wr	ong
I remember each flash			To (13) this men	nory clean
As (2) began to blui	•		Let the thoughts cross
Like a startling sound			The distance in your eyes
That fate had (3)	(4)	me	Across (14) new	divide
And your voice is all I heard			And every loss and (15)	lie
That I get what I deserve			And every truth that you der	ny
So give me reason			And each regret and each g	oodbye
To (5) me wrong			Was a (16)	_ too great to hide
To wash this memory clean			And your voice is all I heard
Let the thoughts cross			That I get what I deserve
The distance in your eyes			So (17) me reas	on
Now give me reason			To prove me wrong
To fill this hole			To wash this (18)	clean
Connect the space between			Let the (19)	cross
Let it fill up			The (20)	_ in your eyes
To reach the (6)	_ and lies		Give me reason
Across this new divide			To fill this hole
There was nothing left inside			Connect the (21)	between
The memories left abandoned			Let it fill up
There was (7)	_ else to hide		To (22) the tru	iths and lies
Te ashs (8) (9)	snow		Across (23) new	divide
And the ground (10) in		Across this new divide
Between where we were standing			Across this new divide
And your voice is all I heard
That Light (11) Light	erve
