Tangled Up In Blue (Live) by Bob Dylan

Early one morning, the sun was shinin'	She was working in a topless place
She was layin' in bed	And I stopped in for a beer
Wondering if she'd changed it all	I (11) (12) (13) at the
If her hair was still red	sight of her face
Her folks they said their lives together	In the spotlight so clear
Sure was (1) be rough	And later on (14) the crowd (15)
They never did like mama's (2) dress	out
Papa's bankbook wasn't big enough	I was just (16) to do the same
And he was standing on the side of the road	She was standing there right beside my chair
Rain falling on my shoes	Said, "Don't tell me, let me (17) your name?"
Heading out for the east coast	I muttered something underneath my breath
Lord knows he's (3) (4) dues	She studied the lines on my face
Getting through	I must admit I felt a (18) uneasy
Tangled up in blue	When she bent down to tie the laces of my shoe
She was married when (5) first met	Tangled up in blue
Soon to be divorced	I lived with them on Montague Street
He helped her out of a jam, I guess	In a basement down the stairs
But he used a (6) too much force	There was (19) in the cafes at night
And they drove that car as far as they could	And revolution in the air
Abandoned it out west	Then he started into dealing with slaves
Split up on a dark, sad night	And (20) inside of him died
Both agreeing it was best	She had to sell everything she owned
And she turned around to (7) at him	And (21) up inside
As he was walking away	And when it all came crashing down
Saying over his shoulder	I became withdrawn
"We'll meet again someday on the avenue"	The only thing I knew how to do
Tangled up in blue	Was to keep on (22) on like a bird that flew
He had a job in Santa Fe	Tangled up in blue
Working in an old hotel	So now I'm going back again
But he never did like it all (8) much	I got to get her somehow
And one day it just went to hell	All the faces we used to know
So he drifted (9) to New Orleans	They're an illusion to me now
Lucky not to be destroyed	Some are mathematicians
Well he got him a job on a fishing boat	Some are carpenter's wives
Right outside of Delacroix	Don't know how it all got started
But all the (10) he was alone	I don't what they do with their lives
The past was close behind	But me, I'm still on the road
He seen a lot of women	Heading for (23) joint
But she never escaped his mind	We always did feel the same
And he just grew	We just saw it from a different point of view
Tangled up in blue	Tangled up in blue
