Fill in the gaps

God Is A River (Live) by Peter Mayer

In the ever-shifting (1)	of the river of this life	But the river kept on coming
I was swimming, seeking comfort		Kept on tugging at my legs
I was wrestling (2) to find		Till at last my fingers faltered
A boulder I (3) cling to, a stone to (4)		And I was swept away me fast		So I'm going with the flow now
Where I let the fretful waters		These relentless twists and bends
Of (5) river 'round me pass		Acclimating to the motion
And so I found an anchor, a blessed (6)		And a sense of being led place		And this river's like my body now
A (7) rock I called	my savior	It carries me along
For there I would be safe		Through the ever-changing scenes
From the river and its dangers		And by the rocks that sing (9) song	ļ
And I proclaimed my rock divine		God is a river, not just a stone
And I prayed to it "protect me"		God is a wild, raging rapids
And the rock replied		And a slow, meandering flow
God is a river, not just a stone		God is a deep and narrow passage
God is a wild, raging rapids		And a peaceful, (10) shoal
And a slow, meandering flow		God is a river, swimmer
God is a deep and narrow passage)	So let it go
And a peaceful, sandy shoal		God is the river, swimmer
God is a river, swimmer		So let it go
So let it go
Still I clung to my rock tightly
With conviction in my arms
Never looking at the stream
To keep my mind from (8)	of harm
