Over The River And Through The Woods by (Lydia Maria Child)

Over the river and through the woods	As over the ground we go
To grandmother's house we go	Over the (9) and (10) the
The horse knows the way to (1) the sleigh	woods
Through the white and drifted snow (oh)	And through the barnyard gate
Over the river and through the woods	We seem to go extremely slow
(Oh) how the wind (2) blow!	It is so hard to wait!
It stings the toes, and bites the nose	Over the river and through the woods
As over the ground we go	Now grandmother's cap I spy!
Everybody now	Hurrah for the fun!
Over the (3) and through the woods	Is the pudding done?
To grandmother's house we go	Hurrah for the pumpkin pie!
The horse knows the way to (4) the sleigh	Hurrah for the fun!
Through the white and (5) snow (oh)	Is the pudding done?
Over the river and (6) the woods	Hurrah!
(Oh) how the wind does blow!
It (7) the toes, and (8) the nose
