It stings the toes, and bites the nose

Over The River And Through The Woods by (Lydia Maria Child)

Over the fiver and (1) the woods	As over the ground we go
To grandmother's house we go	Over the river and through the woods
The (2) knows the way to carry the sleigh	And through the barnyard gate
Through the white and drifted snow (oh)	We seem to go (7) slow
Over the (3) and through the woods	It is so hard to wait!
(Oh) how the (4) (5) blow!	Over the river and through the woods
t stings the toes, and bites the nose	Now grandmother's cap I spy!
As over the (6) we go	Hurrah for the fun!
Everybody now	Is the pudding done?
Over the river and through the woods	Hurrah for the pumpkin pie!
To grandmother's house we go	Hurrah for the fun!
The horse knows the way to carry the sleigh	Is the (8) done?
Through the white and drifted snow (oh)	Hurrah!
