Losing Grip by Avril Lavigne

Why should I care?
'Cause you weren't there

Fill in the gaps

Are you aware of what you make me feel	When I was scared
Baby	I was so alone
Right now I feel (1) to you	You, you need to listen
Like I'm not real	I'm starting to trip
Didn't you feel me lock my (2) (3)	l'm (15) my grip
you?	And I'm in this (16) alone
Why'd you turn away?	Crying out loud
Here's what I (4) to say	I'm crying out loud
I was (5) to cry there	Crying out loud
Waiting outside there	I'm crying out loud
Grinning with a (6) stare	Open your eyes
That's (7) I decided	Open up wide
Why (8) I care?	Why should I care?
'Cause you weren't there	'Cause you weren't there
When I was scared	When I was scared
I was so alone	I was so alone
You, you need to listen	Why should I care?
I'm starting to trip	'Cause you weren't there
I'm losing my grip	When I was scared
And I'm in this (9) alone	I was so alone
Am I (10) (11) chick you placed	Why (17) I care?
Beside you	If you don't care, then I don't care
To take somebody's place?	We're not going anywhere
When you (12) around	Why should I care?
Can you recognize my face?	'Cause you weren't there
You used to love me	When I was scared
You used to hug me	I was so alone
But that was in the case	Why (18) I care?
Everything wasn't okay	If you don't care
I was (13) to cry there	Then I don't care
Waiting outside there	We're not going anywhere
Grinning with a lost stare
That's (14) I decided
