Streets Of London by Ralph McTell

Have you seen the old man	So how can you tell me you're lonely
In the closed down market	And say for you that the sun don't shine
Kicking up the papers with his worn out shoes	Let me take you by hand
In his (1) you see no pride	And lead you through the streets of London
Hand held loosely at his side	I'll show you something
Yesterday's paper (2) yesterday's news	To (14) you (15) your mind
So how can you tell me you're lonely	Have you (16) the old man
And say for you that the sun don't shine	Outside the seaman's mission
Let me take you by the hand	Memory fading with
And lead you (3) the streets of London	The medal (17) that he wears
I'll (4) you something	And in our winter city the rain (18) a little pity
To make you change your mind	For one more (19) hero
Have you seen the old girl	And a world that doesn't care
Who (5) the (6) of London
Dirt in her hair and her clothes in rags	So how can you (20) me you're lonely
She's no time for talking	And say for you (21) the sun don't shine
She just keeps right on walking	Let me take you by the hand
Carrying her (7) in two (8) bags	And lead you (22) the streets of London
So how can you (9) me you're lonely	I'll (23) you something
And say for you (10) the sun don't shine	To make you (24) your mind
Let me take you by the hand
And lead you (11) the streets of London	How can you tell me you're lonely
I'll show you something	And say for you that the sun don't shine
To make you change your mind	Let me take you by the hand
In the all night cafe at a quarter past eleven	And (25) you through the (26) of
Same old man sitting there on his own	London
Looking at the world over the rim of his tea cup	I'll show you something
And (12) tea lasts an hour	To make you (27) your mind
And he (13) home alone
