

Fill in the gaps

can see the pain (1) in your eyes	I don't (15) to lead you on
And I know how hard you try	I don't (16) to (17) you back
You deserve to have so (2) more	From where you might belong can (3) (4) (5) and I	You would never ask me why sympathize	My (18) is so disguised
And I'll (6) criticize	I just can't live a lie anymore
All you've ever meant to my life	I (19) rather hurt myself don't want to let you down	Than to ever make you cry don't want to (7) you on	There's (20) left to say, but goodbye don't (8) to hold you back	You would never ask me why
From where you (9) belong	My heart is so disguised
You would never ask me why	I (21) can't live a lie anymore
My heart is so disguised	I would (22) hurt myself just can't live a lie anymore	Than to ever make you cry
(10) rather hurt myself	There's nothing left to try
Than to ever (11) you cry	Though it's (23) hurt us both
There's nothing left to say but goodbye	There's no other way than to say goodbye
You deserve the (12) at the kind of love
'm not (13) I'm worthy of osing you is painful to me don't (14) to let you down
