A Whiter Shade Of Pale by Procol Harum

vve skipped a (1) fandango	As the miller told his tale
Turned cartwheels 'cross the floor	That her face, at first just ghostly
I was feeling kind of seasick	Turned a (15) shade of pale
(But the) crowd (2) out for more	She (16) there is no reason
The room was humming harder	And the truth is plain to see
As the (3) flew away	But I (17) (18) my
When we (4) out for (5)	(19) cards drink	Would not let her be
The (6) a tray	One of sixteen vestal virgins
And so it was that later	Who were (20) for the coast
As the (8) told his tale	At the (21) my eyes were open
That her face at first just ghostly	They might just as well (22) been closed
Turned a (9) (10) of pale	And so it was that later
She said, I'm home on shore leave	As the miller told his tale
Though in truth we were at sea	That her face at first just ghostly
So I took her by the (11) glass	Turned a whiter shade of pale
And would not let her be	And so it was that later
Saying, you must be the mermaid	As the (23) told his tale
Who took (12) for a ride	That her (24) at first (25) ghostly
But she (13) at me so sadly	Turned a whiter shade of pale
That my anger straightway died
And so it was (14) later
