Sounds Of Silence by Simon and Garfunkel

Hello darkness, my old friend		And no one dared
I've come to talk with you again			Disturb the (8)	of silence
Because a vision softly creeping			"Fools", said I, "You do not know
Left its (1)	while I was sleepir	ng	Silence like a cancer grows."
And the vision that was planted in my brain			"Hear my words that I might teach you,
Still remains			Take my arms that I might reach you."
Within the sound of silence			But my words, (9)	silent raindrops fell,
In restless dreams I walked alone			And echoed In the wells of silence
Narrow (2)	of cobblestor	ne	And the people bowed and prayed
'Neath the halo of a street lamp			To the neon god they made
I turned my collar to the cold and damp			And the sign flashed out its warning
When my eyes (3) stabbed by the flash of a			In the words that it was forming
(4) light			And the sign said: "The words of the prophets
That split the night			Are (10)	on the subway walls
And touched the sound of silence			And tenement halls,
And in the naked light I saw			And whispered in the sounds of silence."
Ten thousand people, m	naybe more
People talking without s	peaking
People (5)	(6)	listening
People writing songs (7	') voices	never share
